

Make Your Engagement Session Feel More Personal

PICK YOUR VIBE

From light & airy, dark & moody, woodsy, date night, and adventurous! There are so many ways to go! Choose a feeling that goes with how you feel describes you both. This will also help you with location(s) and outfits!

PICK YOUR COLOR SCHEME

Choose outfits that compliment each other and the scenery, also going slightly bridal has been popular lately! These colors help set the tone of the session. I always recommend if you have two outfits, pick one formal and one informal!

PICK AN ACTIVITY/THINGS/ PETS TO BRING

Want to bring your furry friends? Maybe go get coffee? A vintage car? Get some pizza? You can have so much fun with your session and make it personal! Adding an element to your session will make it easier to be in front of the camera and make your session unique!

PICK YOUR LOCATION

Location is so important to give a personal touch for your session! Whether you want outdoors in the desert, surrounded by trees, or a cute date at a coffee shop, pick something that you love and if you have the option for more than one location, choose two that are completely different!

Still feeling stuck?

Here are some questions or prompts to discuss with your partner!

1. What are your favorite things to do together?
2. A hobby or inside joke you two share
3. What is a dream trip or a place you love?

Some ideas to help you plan...

- "... love letters in the desert..."
- "...cozy picnic in the woods..."
- "... ice cream date downtown..."
- "...pizza on a rooftop garage..."
- "...reading books at the bookstore..."
- "...favorite place to get drinks downtown..."
- "...cooking dinner in a cozy cabin together..."
- "... getting tattoos together..."

Your session doesn't need to be perfect — it just needs to be you. The best photos come from being present, playful, and real. You've got this
